MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED AUGUST 31, 2013

A. Operating Results

Management's discussion and analysis is presented in relation to the financial statements of Miranda, which statements are prepared as a going concern in accordance with IFRS.

Miranda is in the natural resource sector engaged in the acquisition, exploration and, given the proper situation, development of mineral properties. The Company's primary focus is on gold exploration. The Company has varying interests in a number of mineral properties located in Nevada, Colombia and Alaska.

The consolidated financial statements referred in this Annual Report have been prepared in accordance with IFRS issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and Interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC"). The policies applied in the financial statements are based on the IFRS issued and outstanding as at the date the Board of Directors approved the financial statements for issue.

Results of Operations for the year ended August 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011

The Company incurred a loss of $3,215,753 (2012 - $3,638,037; 2011 - $3,698,003) and a comprehensive loss of $3,296,198 for the year ended August 31, 2013 (2012 - $3,782,833; 2011 - $3,647,741).

Expenses for the year ending August 31, 2013 were $3,158,430 (2012 - $3,619,716; 2011 - $3,610,933).

Significant or noteworthy differences between the years follow:

Investor relations, travel and business promotion combined to $383,191 for the year ended August 31, 2013 (2012 - $343,746; 2011 - $327,543). The investor relations programs in fiscal 2013 included attendance at several conferences, newsletters, news releases, interviews (internet), presentations and one-on-one meetings with brokers and analysts, media relations, corporate relations and web site maintenance and responses to inquiries. The 2013 advertising expenditure was approximately $45,000 more than the comparative 2012 year due to a campaign with 321Gold Ltd. during 2013.

The portion of wages and benefits for administration and joint venture management included in expenses are $705,056 for the year ending August 31, 2013 (2012 - $768,447; 2011 - $733,037). In addition, the Company allocates a portion of wages and benefits to exploration projects on the basis of direct time spent that are included in property exploration costs, which can vary somewhat year over year. The Company's President is based in Reno and the Company has five additional full time employees based in our exploration office in Elko, Nevada, seven full time employees based in Medellin.

Office rent, telephone, secretarial and sundry costs for the year ended August 31, 2013 were $190,594 (2012 - $201,109; 2011 - $190,850). There were no significant operational differences between the 2013, 2012 and 2011 fiscal years.

Professional fees, which include audit, tax preparation and legal fees, were $85,642 (2012 - $92,586; 2011 - $80,398). The additional audit fees in 2012 related to the transition to IFRS in fiscal 2012, and slightly increased this expense category in the comparative 2012 year.

Exploration and evaluation expenditures in the year ended August 31, 2013 were $1,216,833 net of recoveries from funding partners of $687,306 (2012 - $1,449,857 net of $483,926 recoveries; 2011 - $1,350,487 net of $605,803 recoveries). Exploration and evaluation expenditures are expensed until such time as economically recoverable reserves have been defined on the mineral property and a decision to proceed with development has been made. The Company acts as a service contractor to some of the Company's partners on certain properties for which it was paid a management fee based on a percentage of eligible expenditures. The Company earned $2,010 in the year ended August 31, 2013 (2012 - $4,706; 2011 - $3,123). The components of exploration and evaluation expenditures are detailed in Note 10 of the financial statements.

Exploration and evaluation recoveries received by way of property option payments are first credited to the individual project's capitalized exploration and evaluation asset cost before any remaining portion is recognized as a recovery. In the year ended August 31, 2013, the Company recognized $3,960 as exploration and evaluation recoveries (2012 - $9,400; 2011 - $40,914).

The non-cash stock based compensation expense for stock options vested during the year was $329,143 in the year ended August 31, 2013 (2012 - $459,188; 2011 - $591,854). The fair value of each option granted was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and recognized over the vesting period of the options.

In fiscal year 2013, the Company wrote off $49,891 in exploration and evaluation asset costs for the Angel Wing, Fuse, HOG, and Rook projects in Nevada. This compared to $86,465 written off in fiscal year 2012, and $206,929 written off in fiscal 2011.

The Company's projects are at the exploration stage and have not yet generated any revenue from production to date.

Readers should refer to the notes to the consolidated financial statements for details regarding all the mineral leases and joint venture agreements for each of the Company's properties.

B. Liquidity and Capital Resources

Miranda's primary source of funds since incorporation has been through the issue of its common stock and the exercise of common stock options and common stock share purchase warrants.

During the August 31, 2013, fiscal year, the Company completed a non-brokered private placement, raising $5,000,000 through the issuance of 20,000,000 units at a price of $0.25 per unit (a "Unit"). Each Unit consisted of one common share and one non-transferable common share purchase warrant, with each Warrant entitling the holder thereof to purchase one additional common share of Miranda at a price of $0.375 for the first two years and $0.50 thereafter until expiry five years from the date of closing the private placement. If the daily volume weighted average trading price of the common shares of Miranda is at least $0.50 per share for 20 consecutive trading days in the period commencing four months after the closing date and up to two years after the closing date or at least $0.75 per share thereafter, Miranda will have the right, exercisable within five trading days thereof, to accelerate the expiry date of the warrants to the date which is 30 days after notice is given to the holders of the warrants of the accelerated expiry date and a news release to that effect is given.

Miranda applies the joint venture business model to its operations. Through generative exploration it stakes claims on mineral properties, or acquires the property by way of an option to lease agreement, and then seeks a joint venture partner to fund the exploration of the project to earn an interest. In some agreements Miranda receives common stock and/or cash option payments as a portion of the cost to earn an interest in the project.

The Company records management fees earned for acting as a service contractor to certain exploration funding partners as an offset to expenses. Mineral property option proceeds from properties where all acquisition costs have been recovered further reduce expenses. The Company does not anticipate mining revenues from the sale of mineral production in the foreseeable future. The operations of the Company consist of the exploration and evaluation of mining properties and as such the Company's financial success will be dependent on the extent to which it can discover new mineral deposits. The Company anticipates seeking additional equity investment from time to time to fund its activities that cannot be funded through other means.

The following is a summary of the Company's financial results for the eight most recently completed quarters:

Miranda began the fourth quarter of the 2013 fiscal year with cash of $7,752,221. During the three months ended August 31, 2013, the Company expended $716,859 on operating activities and recovered $61,294 on investing activities and experienced a positive effect of $19,887 from foreign exchange on cash, to end on August 31, 2013, with $7,116,543 in cash.

Miranda began the 2013 fiscal year with cash of $4,955,344. During the year ended August 31, 2013, the Company expended $2,707,308 on operating activities and $80,107 on investing activities and raised $4,927,741 on financing activities, and experienced a positive effect of $20,873 from foreign exchange on cash to end on August 31, 2013, with $7,116,543 in cash.

As at November 30, 2013, there were 8,079,500 stock options outstanding pursuant to the 2013 Plan, none of which were "in-the-money" (TSX.V closing price November 29, 2013 was $0.135). In addition, as at November 30, 2013, there were 20,835,800 share purchase warrants outstanding, none of which were "in-the-money".

The Company has sufficient cash to meet its obligations as they come due.

C. Research and Development, Patents and Licenses

As Miranda is a mineral exploration company with no producing properties, the information required by this item is inapplicable.

D. Trend Information

Trends that are considered by Miranda to be reasonably likely to have a material effect on our results of operations are discussed above under "Operating Results" in Item 5.A and "Liquidity and Capital Resources" in Item 5.B. Further, we consider that our ability to raise additional funding in order to complete our exploration programs and the plan of operations for its mineral properties for the current fiscal year and beyond will be impacted by prevailing prices for metals. As a mineral resource exploration company, the interest in Miranda's stock, and our ability to raise financing and conduct work programs, has been cyclical as it is related to metal prices that, traditionally, have been cyclical in nature. If the global demand for gold decreases and gold prices decrease, it could adversely impair Miranda's ability to raise financing and advance the exploration of our mineral properties.

The Company is a mineral exploration company. At this time, any issues of seasonality or market fluctuations have no material impact other than our ability to raise additional equity capital on terms that are acceptable to the Company. The Company currently defers its mineral property acquisition costs. The Company expenses its exploration and project investigation and general and administration costs and these amounts are included in the net loss for each quarter. The Company's treasury, in part, determines the level of exploration undertaken.

E. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Miranda does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

F. Tabular Disclosure of Contractual Obligations

The following table outlines the current contractual obligations of Miranda as at August 31, 2013:

Contractual Obligations	Payments due by period
	Total	Less than 1 year	1-3 years	3-5 years	More than 5 years

G. Safe Harbor

Certain statements contained in the foregoing Operating Results and elsewhere in this Annual Report on Form 20-F constitutes forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Miranda to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date the statements were made and readers are advised to consider such forward-looking statements in light of the risks set forth below.

Risk factors that could affect our future results include, but are not limited to, risks inherent in mineral exploration activities and other operating and development risks, no revenue from commercial operations, no assurance that any of our mineral properties possess commercially mineable bodies of ore, financial risk, shareholder dilution from additional equity financings, competition, environmental regulations, changes to reclamation requirements, volatility and sensitivity to market prices for precious and base metals, the impact of changes in foreign currencies' exchange rates, political risk, changes in government regulation and policies including trade laws and policies, demand for precious and base metals, and receipt of permits and approvals from governmental authorities.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Shareholders and Directors of Miranda Gold Corp.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Miranda Gold Corp., which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of August 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss, cash flows and changes in equity for the years ended August 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards and the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained in our audits is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Miranda Gold Corp. as at August 31, 2013 and 2012 and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years ended August 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board.

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Miranda Gold Corp. ("Miranda" or the "Company") is a publicly-traded company incorporated under the laws of the Province of British Columbia, Canada. The Company's shares are listed on the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX-V"). The corporate office of the Company is Unit 1 - 15782 Marine Drive, White Rock, B.C., V4B 1E6. The Company is engaged in the identification, acquisition, exploration and, if warranted, development of exploration and evaluation assets in the United States and Colombia. The consolidated financial statements of the Company as at and for the year ended August 31, 2013, comprise the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company is considered to be in the exploration stage as it has not placed any of its exploration and evaluation assets into production.

The Company is in the process of exploring its exploration and evaluation assets and has not yet determined whether any of its properties contain mineral reserves that are economically recoverable. The recoverability of the amounts spent for exploration and evaluation is dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its properties, and upon future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition of the properties.

The Company will periodically have to raise additional funds to continue operations and while it has been successful in doing so in the past, there can be no assurance it will be able to do so in the future. The operations of the Company will require various licenses and permits from various governmental authorities which are or may be granted subject to various conditions and may be subject to renewal from time to time. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to comply with such conditions and obtain or retain all necessary licenses and permits that may be required to carry out exploration, development and mining operations at its projects. Failure to comply with these conditions may render the licences liable to forfeiture.

These consolidated financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business in the foreseeable future. Management believes that the Company's cash on hand at August 31, 2013, is sufficient to finance exploration activities and operations through the next twelve months. The Company's ability to continue on a going concern basis beyond the next twelve months depends on its ability to successfully raise additional financing for the substantial capital expenditures required to achieve planned principal operations. While the Company has been successful in the past in obtaining financing, there is no assurance that it will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that such financing will be on terms acceptable to the Company.

These financial statements do not reflect adjustments that would be necessary if the going concern assumption were not appropriate.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

a) Statement of compliance

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and Interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC"). The policies applied in these financial statements are based on the IFRS issued and outstanding as at the date the Board of Directors approved these financial statements for issue.

b) Basis of measurement

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair value. In addition, these consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION (continued)

c) Functional and presentation currency

The presentation currency of the Company is the Canadian dollar.

Items included in the financial statements of each entity in the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency") and has been determined for each entity within the Company. The functional currency of Miranda Gold Corp., the parent company, is the Canadian dollar and the functional currency of the Company's US subsidiary, Miranda Gold USA Inc., is the United States dollar. The functional currency of the Company's Canadian subsidiaries, Miranda Gold Colombia I, II, IV, and V Ltd., is the Canadian dollar, the functional currency of Rovira Mining Limited (renamed from Miranda Gold Colombia III Ltd.) is the Canadian dollar, and the functional currency of all of the Colombian Branch operations is the Canadian dollar. The functional currency determinations were conducted through an analysis of the consideration factors identified in IAS 21 The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates ("IAS 21").

d) Use of estimates and judgments

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

(i) Critical accounting estimates

Critical accounting estimates are estimates and assumptions made by management that may result in a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year and are, but are not limited to, the following:

Estimated useful lives of equipment

The estimated useful lives of equipment which are included in the consolidated statements of financial position will impact the amount and timing of the related depreciation included in operations.

Share-based compensation

The fair value of stock options issued are subject to the limitations of the Black-Scholes option pricing model that incorporates market data and involves uncertainty in estimates used by management in the assumptions. Because the Black-Scholes option pricing model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the volatility of share prices, changes in subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate.

Recovery of deferred tax assets

Judgment is required in determining whether deferred tax assets are recognized in the statement of financial position. Deferred tax assets, including those arising from unutilized tax losses, require management to assess the likelihood that the Company will generate taxable earnings in future periods, in order to utilize recognized deferred tax assets. Estimates of future taxable income are based on forecast cash flows from operations and the application of existing tax laws in each jurisdiction. To the extent that future cash flows and taxable income differ significantly from estimates, the ability of the Company to realize the net deferred tax assets recorded at the date of the statement of financial position could be impacted.

Additionally, future changes in tax laws in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates could limit the ability of the Company to obtain tax deductions in future periods.

The Company has not recorded any deferred tax assets.

(ii) Critical accounting judgments

Information about critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements are, but are not limited to, the following:

Determination of functional currency

In accordance with IAS 21, management determined that the functional currency of the Company, its Canadian subsidiaries, and its Colombian branch operations is the Canadian dollar, while the functional currency of its US subsidiary, Miranda Gold USA Inc., is the US dollar.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries and branch operations. Intercompany balances and transactions, and any income and expenses arising from intercompany transactions, are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

Foreign currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in the functional currency by applying exchange rates at the dates of the transactions in the financial statements of each entity in the Company.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are re-translated to the functional currency at the reporting date exchange rate.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are measured at fair value are re-translated to the functional currency at the exchange rate at the date that the fair value was determined. Foreign currency differences arising on re-translation are recognized in operations.

On consolidation, for subsidiaries with functional currencies other than the Canadian dollar, the assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars using the period-end rate and the operations and cash flows are translated using the average rates of exchange. Exchange adjustments arising when the opening net assets and the profit or loss are translated into Canadian dollars are taken into a separate component of equity and reported in other comprehensive profit or loss.

Equipment

Equipment is recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Depreciation is recognized in operations on a declining balance basis over the estimated useful lives of each asset or component part of an item of equipment, the choice dependant on which most closely reflects the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset. The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods range from three to five years commencing from the year the assets are first put into service.

Where an item of equipment is composed of major components with different useful lives, the components are accounted for as separate items of equipment. Expenditures incurred to replace a component of an item of equipment that is accounted for separately, including major inspection and overhaul expenditures, are capitalized.

Exploration and evaluation assets and expenditures

Upon acquiring the legal right to explore a property, all direct costs related to the acquisition of mineral property interests are capitalized. Exploration and evaluation expenditures incurred prior to the determination of the feasibility of mining operations and a decision to proceed with development are charged to operations as incurred.

Expenditures incurred subsequent to a development decision, and to increase or to extend the life of existing production, are capitalized and will be transferred to property, plant and equipment and amortized on the unit-of-production method based upon estimated proven and probable reserves. When there is little prospect of further work on a property being carried out by the Company, the remaining deferred costs associated with that property are charged to operations during the period such determination is made.

The Company assesses exploration and evaluation assets for impairment at each reporting date and when facts and circumstances suggest that the carrying amount may exceed its recoverable amount.

Restoration, rehabilitation and environmental obligations

An obligation to incur restoration, rehabilitation and environmental costs arises when environmental disturbance is caused by the exploration or development of a mineral property interest. Such costs arising from the decommissioning of a plant and other site preparation work, discounted to their net present value, are provided for and capitalized at the start of each project to the carrying amount of the asset, along with a corresponding liability as soon as the obligation to incur such costs arises. The timing of the actual rehabilitation expenditure is dependent on a number of factors such as the life and nature of the asset, the operating license conditions and, when applicable, the environment in which the mine operates.

A liability is recognized for legal obligations relating to the restoration, rehabilitation and retirement of property, plant or equipment obligations arising from the acquisition, construction, development or normal operation of those assets. Such decommissioning liabilities are recognized at fair value, when a reasonable estimate of fair value can be made, in the period in which the liability is incurred. A corresponding increase to the carrying amount of the related asset where one is identifiable is recorded and amortized over the life of the asset. Where a related asset is not easily identifiable with a liability, the change in fair value over the course of the year is expensed. The amount of the liability is subject to re-measurement at each reporting period. The estimates are based principally on legal and regulatory requirements.

It is possible that the Company's estimate of its ultimate reclamation liabilities could change as a result of changes in regulations; the extent of environmental remediation required or completed and the means of reclamation or changes in cost estimates. Changes in estimates are accounted for prospectively commencing in the period the estimate is revised.

The Company has no material restoration, rehabilitation and environmental obligations as all environmental disturbances to date has been minimal.

Impairment

The carrying amounts of the Company's non-financial assets, other than deferred tax assets if any, are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated.

For the purpose of impairment testing, assets that cannot be tested individually are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the "cash-generating unit" or "CGU"). The recoverable amount of an asset or CGU is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

The Company's corporate assets do not generate separate cash inflows. If there is an indication that a corporate asset may be impaired, then the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU to which the corporate asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognized if the carrying amount of an asset or its CGU exceeds its estimated recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognized in operations.

Impairment losses recognized in prior periods are assessed at each reporting date for any indications that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortization, if no impairment loss had been recognized. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in operations.

The Company has assessed its non-financial assets as at August 31, 2013, and has concluded that there is no indication of impairment.

Provisions

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognized as a finance cost. The Company has not recorded any provisions for any of the financial years presented.

Financial assets

(i) Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss ("FVTPL")

Financial assets at FVTPL are financial assets held for trading. A financial asset is classified in this category if acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the short term or if so designated by management. Derivatives are also categorized as FVTPL unless they are designed as effective hedges. Assets in this category include cash.

Financial assets at FVTPL are initially recognized, and subsequently carried, at fair value with changes recognized in operations. Attributable transaction costs are recognized in operations when incurred.

(ii) Financial assets available for sale ("AFS")

Financial assets available for sale are measured at fair value with unrealized gains and losses recognized in other comprehensive income or loss ("OCI") except for losses in value that are considered other than temporary or a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of that investment below its cost. Assets in this category include marketable securities.

Financial assets AFS are initially recognized, and subsequently carried at fair value with changes recognized in OCI. Attributable acquisition transaction costs, if any, are recognized in the initial fair value.

(iii) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for those with maturities greater than 12 months or those that are expected to be settled after 12 months from the end of the reporting period, which are classified as non-current assets. Assets in this category include amounts receivable and advances.

Loans and receivables are initially recognized at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method, except for short-term receivables when the recognition of interest would be immaterial.

The effective interest method is used to determine the amortized cost of loans and receivables and to allocate interest income over the corresponding period. The effective interest rate is the rate that discounts estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial asset, or, where appropriate, a shorter period.

(iv) Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those at FVTPL, are assessed for indicators of impairment at each reporting period end. Financial assets are impaired when there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset, the estimated future cash flows of the investment have been impacted.

Objective evidence of impairment could include the following:

- Significant financial difficulty of the issuer or counterparty;
- Default or delinquency in interest or principal payments; or
- It has become probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganization.

For financial assets carried at amortized cost, the amount of the impairment is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows, discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate.

The carrying amount of all financial assets, excluding amounts receivable, is directly reduced by the impairment loss. The carrying value of amounts receivable is reduced through the use of an allowance account. When a receivable is considered uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the allowance account. Changes in the carrying amount of the allowance account are recognized in operations.

For financial assets measured at amortized cost, if in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment losses were recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed through operations to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset at the date the impairment is reversed does not exceed what the amortized cost would have been had the impairment not been recognized.

(v) De-recognition of financial assets

Financial assets are de-recognized when the rights to receive cash flows from the assets expire or the financial assets are transferred and the Company has transferred substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial assets. On de-recognition of a financial asset, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable and the cumulative gain or loss that had been recognized directly in equity is recognized in operations.

Financial liabilities and equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the group entities are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities are classified as either financial liabilities at FVTPL or other financial liabilities.

At the end of each reporting period subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value, with changes in fair value recognized directly in operations in the period in which they arise.

Other financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, with interest expense recognized on an effective yield basis.

The Company has classified accounts payable and accrued liabilities as other financial liabilities.

Share capital

Common shares are classified as share capital. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of common shares are recognized as a deduction from equity.

Warrants

The Company accounts for warrants using the relative fair value method. Under this method, the value of warrants issued is measured at fair value at the issue date using the Black-Scholes valuation model and recorded as share capital if and when the warrants are exercised.

Loss per share

The Company presents basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share ("EPS") data for its common shares. Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the loss attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period, adjusted for own shares held. Diluted loss per share is calculated by dividing the earnings (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding assuming that the proceeds to be received on the exercise of dilutive share options and warrants are used to repurchase common shares at the average market price during the period.

In the Company's case, diluted loss per share is the same as basic loss per share, as the effect of outstanding share options and warrants on loss per share would be anti-dilutive.

Share-based compensation

The stock option plan allows Company directors, employees, and consultants to acquire shares of the Company. The fair value of options granted is recognized as a share-based compensation expense with a corresponding increase in equity. An individual is classified as an employee when the individual is an employee for legal or tax purposes (direct employee) or provides services similar to those performed by a direct employee. Consideration paid on the exercise of stock options is credited to share capital and the fair value of the options is reclassified from share-based reserve to share capital.

The fair value is measured at grant date and each tranche is recognized over the period during which the options vest. The fair value of the options granted is measured using the Black-Scholes option pricing model taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. At each financial position reporting date, the amount recognized as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of stock options that are expected to vest.

Share-based payment arrangements in which the Company receives goods or services as consideration for its own equity instruments are accounted for as equity-settled share-based payment transactions.

Accumulated other comprehensive income

Accumulated other comprehensive income consists of the net income and other comprehensive income ("OCI"). The Company's financial statements include a Statement of Loss and Comprehensive Loss, which includes the components of comprehensive income.

For the Company, OCI is comprised of unrealized gains or losses on available for sale financial assets, and foreign currency translation differences for foreign operations, both of which are presented within the shareholders' equity section of the statement of financial position.

Income taxes

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purpose. Deferred tax is not recognized for the following temporary differences: the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable operations, and differences relating to investments in subsidiaries and jointly controlled entities to the extent that it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future. In addition, deferred tax is not recognized for taxable temporary differences arising on the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the reporting date.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realized simultaneously.

A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

Related party transactions

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions. Related parties may be individuals or corporate entities. A transaction is considered to be a related party transaction when there is a transfer of resources or obligations between related parties.

New standards, interpretations and amendments not yet effective

A number of new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations are not yet effective as of August 31, 2013, and have not been applied in preparing these consolidated financial statements. None of these are expected to have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

- i. Effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013

Amendments to IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures and IAS 32 Financial Instruments Presentation

The IASB published amendments to IFRS 7 (eff. Jan. 1, 2013) and IAS 32 (eff. Jan. 1, 2014), the standards that address disclosure and presentation requirements for financial instruments, respectively, related to offsetting financial assets and liabilities, while the criteria required for offsetting do not change.

New standard IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements

Provides a new single consolidation model that identifies control as the basis for consolidation for all types of entities, and replaces IAS 27 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements and SIC-12 Consolidation - Special Purpose Entities.

Miranda Gold Corp.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
For the years ended August 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011
(stated in Canadian dollars)

New standards, interpretations and amendments not yet effective (continued)

New standard IFRS 11 Joint Arrangements

Improves the accounting for joint arrangements by introducing a principle-based approach that requires a party to a joint arrangement to recognize its rights and obligations arising from the arrangement. Such a principle-based approach will provide users with greater clarity about an entity's involvement in its joint arrangements by increasing the verifiability, comparability and understandability of the reporting of these arrangements. IFRS 11 supersedes IAS 31 Interests in Joint Ventures and SIC-13 Jointly Controlled Entities-Non-Monetary Contributions by Venturers.

New standard IFRS 12 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities

Combines, enhances and replaces the disclosure requirements for subsidiaries, joint arrangements, associates and unconsolidated structured entities.

New standard IFRS 13 Fair Value Measurement

Defines fair value and sets out a framework for measuring fair value and disclosures about fair value measurements. It applies when other IFRSs require or permit fair value measurements. It does not introduce any new requirements to measure an asset or a liability at fair value, change what is measured at fair value in IFRSs or address how to present changes in fair value.

Amendments to IAS 27 and IAS 28 Separate Financial Statements and Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures

Addresses accounting for subsidiaries, jointly controlled entities and associates in non-consolidated financial statements. IAS 28 has been amended to include joint ventures in its scope and to address the changes in IFRS 10, 11, 12, and 13.

- ii. Effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2014

Amendments to IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation

The amendments to the disclosure requirements in IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosure require information about all recognised financial instruments that are set off in accordance with paragraph 42 of IAS 32. The amendments also require disclosure of information about recognised financial instruments subject to enforceable master netting arrangements and similar agreements even if they are not set off under IAS 32.

The amendments to IAS 32 are not effective until annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014. However, the new offsetting disclosure requirements are effective sooner - for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2013, and interim periods within those annual periods. The amendments need to be provided retrospectively to all comparative periods.

- iii. Effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2015

New standard IFRS 9 Financial Instruments

Partial replacement of IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. This standard simplifies the current measurement model for financial instruments under IFRS and establishes two measurement categories for financial assets: amortized cost, and fair value. The existing IAS 39 categories of loans and receivables, held to maturity investments, and available for sale financial assets will be eliminated.

The Company has not early adopted these revised standards and is currently assessing the impact that these standards could have on future financial statements.

4. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Categories of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities

Financial instruments are classified into one of the following categories: FVTPL; held-to-maturity investments; loans and receivables; available-for-sale; or other liabilities. The carrying values of the Company's financial instruments are classified into the following categories:

Financial Instrument	Category	August 31, 2013	August 31, 2012
Cash	FVTPL	$ 7,116,543	$ 4,955,344
Amounts receivable	Loans and receivables	201,505	160,530
Marketable securities	Available-for-sale	98,850	286,500
Advances	Loans and receivables	19,783	23,150
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	Other liabilities	(295,788)	(232,792)

The Company's financial instruments recorded at fair value require disclosure about how the fair value was determined based on significant levels of inputs described in the following hierarchy:

- Level 1 - Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date. Active markets are those in which transactions occur in sufficient frequency and value to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.
- Level 2 - Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1. Prices in Level 2 are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date. Level 2 valuations are based on inputs including quoted forward prices for commodities, time value and volatility factors, which can be substantially observed or corroborated in the market place.
- Level 3 - Valuations in this level are those with inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data.

The recorded amounts for amounts receivable, advances, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value due to their short-term nature. Cash and marketable securities are recorded at fair value and is calculated under the fair value hierarchy and measured using Level 1, Level 2, or Level 3 inputs, as appropriate.

Fair value of cash and marketable securities

Financial Instrument	Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets	Significant other observable inputs	Significant unobservable inputs	Total as at August 31, 2013

Risk management

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized as follows:

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if a counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets, including cash, receivables, and balances receivable from the government. The Company limits the exposure to credit risk in its cash by only investing its cash with high-credit quality financial institutions in business and savings accounts, guaranteed investment certificates and in government treasury bills which are available on demand by the Company for its programs.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not have the resources to meet its obligations as they fall due. The Company manages this risk by closely monitoring cash forecasts and managing resources to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its obligations. All of the Company's financial liabilities are classified as current and are anticipated to mature within the next sixty days.

4. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices. These fluctuations may be significant.

- (a) Interest Rate Risk: The Company is exposed to interest rate risk to the extent that its cash balances bear variable rates of interest. The interest rate risks on cash and on the Company's obligations are not considered significant.
- (b) Foreign Currency Risk: The Company has identified its functional currencies as the Canadian dollar and the US dollar. Transactions are transacted in Canadian dollars, US dollars, and Colombian Pesos ("COP"). The Company maintains US dollar bank accounts in the United States and maintains COP bank accounts in Colombia to support the cash needs of its foreign operations. Management believes the foreign exchange risk related to currency conversions are minimal and therefore, does not hedge its foreign exchange risk. At August 31, 2013, one Canadian dollar was equal to 0.9497 US dollars and 1,835 Colombian Pesos.

Balances are as follows:

	US dollars	Colombian Pesos	Canadian dollar equivalent
Cash	380,927	224,339,349	523,381
Amounts receivable	138,233	15,122,000	153,800
Advances and prepaid expenses	15,840	40,794,999	38,913
	535,000	280,256,348	716,094
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	(166,231)	(105,771,775)	(232,687)
Net monetary assets (liabilities)	368,769	174,484,573	483,407

Based upon the above net exposures and assuming that all other variables remain constant, a 10% increase or decrease in the Canadian dollar against the US dollar and the Colombian Peso would result in a decrease or increase in the reported loss of approximately $48,340 in the year.

- (c) Commodity Price Risk: While the value of the Company's exploration and evaluation assets is related to the price of gold and the outlook for this mineral, the Company currently does not have any operating mines and hence does not have any hedging or other commodity based risks in respect to its operational activities.

Historically, the price of gold has fluctuated significantly and is affected by numerous factors outside of the Company's control, including but not limited to industrial and retail demand, central bank lending, forward sales by producers and speculators, levels of worldwide production, short-term changes in supply and demand because of speculative hedging activities, and certain other factors related specifically to gold.

10. EXPLORATION and EVALUATION ASSETS

Miranda acquires mineral properties through staking and from third party vendors, some of which are subject to a net smelter return ("NSR") royalty. Subsequently, the Company may enter into agreements to sell a portion of its interest in its mineral properties to third parties in exchange for exploration expenditures, royalty interests, cash, and/or share based payments.

Miranda cannot guarantee title to all of its exploration and evaluation assets, as the properties may be subject to prior mineral rights applications with priority, prior unregistered agreements or transfers and title may be affected by undetected defects. Certain of the mineral rights held by Miranda are held under applications for mineral rights, and until final approval of such applications is received, Miranda's rights to such mineral rights may not materialize, and the exact boundaries of Miranda's properties may be subject to adjustment.

The Red Hill / Coal Canyon project was the subject of an exploration and option to enter into a joint venture agreement with NuLegacy from October 1, 2009, until it was terminated on January 25, 2013.

l) Redlich Property, Esmeralda County, Nevada

The Company holds claims comprising the Redlich Property, Esmeralda County, Nevada, subject to a 3% NSR royalty. Upon completion of a bankable feasibility study, the Company has the option to buy two percentage points of the NSR for US$1,000,000 per percentage point.

m) Rook Property, Eureka County, Nevada

The Company held claims comprising the Rook property, Eureka County, Nevada, but allowed them to lapse in September 2013.

n) TAZ Property, Eureka County, Nevada

From February 11, 2011, until the agreement was terminated on June 20, 2013, the TAZ Property was the subject of an exploration and option to enter into a joint venture agreement with TAZ Gold LLC and Navaho Gold PTY Ltd as guarantor. The Company held claims comprising the TAZ property, but allowed them to lapse in September 2013.

o) Ester Dome Property, Fairbanks Mining District, Alaska

The Ester Dome project was the subject of an exploration and option to enter into a joint venture agreement with Agnico-Eagle (USA) Limited ("Agnico") from October 1, 2010, until it was terminated on September 25, 2012. On the same date, the Company terminated the underlying lease with Range Minerals Inc., and wrote off the remaining carrying value of $52,865.

p) Cajamarca Option, Colombia

On December 10, 2010, the Company executed three option agreements to acquire the Cajamarca, Fresno and Ibague mining interests (collectively the "Cajamarca Option") by and among ExpoGold, the Company, and the Company's subsidiary Miranda Gold Colombia IV Ltd. ("MAD IV"); and the Colombian branch of MAD IV. The terms of the Cajamarca Option were agreed to in an earlier Association Agreement and the Company must meet the following to maintain the option:

Cajamarca Option Due Dates	Minimum advance royalty payments US$	Common shares to be issued to ExpoGold
December 10, 2010 (paid and issued)	30,000	30,000
December 10, 2011 (paid and issued)	40,000	40,000
December 10, 2012 (paid and issued)	30,000	30,000
December 10, 2013 (not paid, force majeure)	40,000	60,000
December 10, 2014	50,000	80,000
December 10, 2015, and on each subsequent anniversary	60,000	100,000

Annual payments and issuances of shares per the above table will be required to maintain the option until the first milestone is achieved. The first milestone is the definition of a NI 43-101 Measured and Indicated resource greater than or equal to 250,000 ounces of gold equivalent. MAD IV will pay ExpoGold $100,000 if it is less than 500,000 ounces of gold equivalent and $250,000 if it is more. Additional payments will be owed by MAD IV at various milestones as the steps to production progress.

Effective September 19, 2011, the Company entered into a share purchase agreement ("SPA") and a shareholder agreement ("SA") with Red Eagle. Pursuant to the SPA, Miranda assigned 70%; or 70 of the 100 shares of MAD IV to Red Eagle representing Red Eagle's option to earn up to a 70% interest in the Cajamarca Option. Effective November 1, 2013, the Cajamarca Option was added to the Pavo Real SA with Rovira and Red Eagle voluntarily transferred the 70 shares of MAD IV to MAD.

On November 25, 2011, Miranda received 30,000 shares of Red Eagle, valued at $21,840, as reimbursement for the December 10, 2010, share issue due from Miranda to ExpoGold pursuant to the Cajamarca Option.

On November 30, 2011, Miranda issued 40,000 common shares to ExpoGold valued at $13,200 pursuant to the Cajamarca Option. In turn, on December 20, 2011, Miranda received 40,000 shares of Red Eagle, valued at $22,080, as reimbursement for the November 30, 2011, share issue due from Miranda to ExpoGold pursuant to the SPA.

On December 19, 2012, Miranda issued 30,000 common shares to ExpoGold valued at $7,200 pursuant to the Cajamarca Option. In turn, on December 27, 2012, Miranda received 30,000 shares of Red Eagle, valued at $11,160, as reimbursement for the December 19, 2012, share issue due from Miranda to ExpoGold pursuant to the SPA. The excess value of $3,960 of the Red Eagle shares over the Miranda shares was taken into exploration and evaluation recoveries.

Exploration at Cajamarca is currently on hold due to security concerns. Miranda has agreed with Rovira to defer the exploration commitments until the security situation improves. Miranda has provided notice of force majeure to ExpoGold pursuant to the Cajamarca Option.

q) Cerro Oro property, Colombia

In January 2013, the Company entered into a lease agreement on the Cerro Oro property which required payment of US$10,000 on signing and a subsequent payment of US$80,000 upon conversion of the application to a license, which has yet to occur. To maintain the lease, annual escalating payments that total $625,000 over five years will be required, and thereafter annual payments of US$135,000. The project is also subject to a 1.2% production royalty and a per-ounce bonus for Measured and Indicated NI 43-101 compliant Resource and Reserves.

In June 2013, a conditional share purchase agreement was signed between Prism Resources Inc. ("Prism") and the Company which takes effect and is conditional upon the Cerro Oro applications being converted to a license, certain share transfers taking effect, and applicable regulatory approvals. Upon satisfaction of the foregoing conditions, Prism will reimburse Miranda for all underlying lease payments paid by the Company and Prism will be obligated to fund exploration related expenditures of US$4,000,000 to earn an effective 51% interest in the Cerro Oro property and, through additional funding, can earn an additional 19% for a total interest of 70%.

r) Minagrande property, Colombia

On April 12, 2013, the Company paid canon fees (government fees) to Ingeominas in Colombia of $51,849 for acquisition of the Minagrande property.

Strategic Alliance: Pursuant to the January 23, 2013 strategic alliance agreement between the Company and Agnico Eagle Mines Limited ("Agnico") for precious metal exploration in Colombia, the Company and Agnico will share funding 30:70, respectively, in generative exploration expenditures with Miranda as operator. The alliance is for a period of three years and is renewable thereafter by mutual consent. The exploration program budget will be an aggregate of no less than US$1,100,000 in year one.

Initially, properties will be acquired by Miranda and alliance funding will be used to advance the projects through exploration. Once a property meets certain criteria, it will be presented to Agnico who can elect to treat the property as a Designated Property. Once selected, a Designated Property will be subject to a stand-alone earn-in agreement whereby Agnico can earn up to a 70% interest in the Designated Property by sole funding a series of exploration expenditures and feasibility study. Projects that do not meet the criteria as Designated Properties will remain in the Company's control. Miranda can then choose to advance the project at its own expense, seek another company to partner with, or drop the property.

Miranda has recovered 70% of the Minagrande acquisition costs from Agnico pursuant to the 30:70 funding terms of the alliance agreement.

s) Pavo Real Option, Colombia

On June 24, 2010, the Company executed an option agreement (the "Pavo Option") by and among ExpoGold, the Company, and the Company's subsidiary Miranda Gold Colombia III Ltd., which was subsequently renamed Rovira Mining Limited ("Rovira"); and the Colombian branch of Rovira to acquire the Pavo Real mining interest. The terms of the Pavo Option were agreed to in an earlier Association Agreement and the Company must meet the following to maintain the option:

Pavo Real Option Due Dates	Minimum advance royalty payments US$	Common shares to be issued to ExpoGold
Previously paid and issued	90,000	300,000
June 24, 2012 (paid and issued)	60,000	100,000
June 24, 2013 (paid and issued)	70,000	100,000
June 24, 2014	80,000	100,000
June 24, 2015, and on each subsequent anniversary	100,000	100,000

Annual payments of US$100,000, plus the issue of 100,000 common shares will be required to maintain the option until the first milestone is achieved. The first milestone is the definition of a NI 43-101 Measured and Indicated Resource greater than or equal to 250,000 ounces of gold equivalent. Rovira will pay ExpoGold US$100,000 if it is less than 500,000 ounces of gold equivalent and US$250,000 if it is more. Additional payments will be owed by Rovira at various milestones as the steps to production progress.

On June 25, 2010, the Company entered into a share purchase agreement ("SPA") and a shareholder agreement ("SA") with Red Eagle, as amended on November 1, 2013. The SPA and SA agreements became effective on June 24, 2010. Pursuant to the SPA, Miranda assigned 70% of the shares of Rovira to Red Eagle. The activities of Rovira are governed by the SA. To maintain its 70% shareholding in Rovira, effectively representing a 70% interest in the Pavo Option, and now including the Cajamarca property assigned to the SA on November 1, 2013, Red Eagle must make an aggregate US$4,000,000 contribution to Rovira within four years. These funds will be used to fund exploration work at the Pavo Real and Cajamarca projects.

Red Eagle must then further fund Rovira at a minimum of US$1,000,000 per year and either complete a bankable feasibility study on either of the Pavo Real or Cajamarca projects within eight years, or contribute a minimum of US$10,000,000 in the combined properties within 10 years. At the time the board of directors of Rovira approves a feasibility study and a mine construction program on the Pavo Real or Cajamarca projects, Red Eagle will have the option for a period of 30 days to elect to acquire an additional 10% interest in Rovira by committing to solely fund all costs associated with putting either of the properties into production. If Red Eagle fails to make any of the capital contributions within the stated time periods, Red Eagle will forfeit its shares of Rovira to Miranda.

Red Eagle has assumed and is responsible for all payments and other obligations due from Miranda to ExpoGold under the Pavo and Cajamarca Options. Miranda will be issued shares of Red Eagle on a share-for-share basis as reimbursement for the issuance of Miranda shares to ExpoGold pursuant to the Pavo and Cajamarca Options.

On June 24, 2012, Miranda issued 100,000 common shares to ExpoGold valued at $33,000 pursuant to the Pavo Option Agreement. Miranda, in turn, received 100,000 shares of Red Eagle pursuant to the SPA, valued at $42,400, with the excess value of $9,400 of the Red Eagle shares over the Miranda shares taken into exploration and evaluation recoveries.

On June 14, 2013, Miranda issued 100,000 common shares to ExpoGold valued at $19,000 pursuant to the Pavo Option. Miranda, in turn, received 100,000 shares of Red Eagle pursuant to the SPA, valued at $16,800.

Fiscal 2013

On December 19, 2012, the Company completed a non-brokered private placement of 20,000,000 units at a price of $0.25 per unit, for gross proceeds of $5,000,000. Each unit consisted of one common share and one non-transferable share purchase warrant. Each warrant entitles the holder thereof to purchase one additional common share of Miranda at a price of $0.375 for the first two years and $0.50 thereafter until December 19, 2017. If the daily volume weighted average trading price of the common shares of Miranda is at least $0.50 per share for 20 consecutive trading days in the period commencing April 20, 2013 and up December 19, 2014, or at least $0.75 per share thereafter, Miranda will have the right, exercisable within five trading days thereof, to accelerate the expiry date of the warrants to the date which is 30 days after notice is given to the holders of the warrants of the accelerated expiry date and a news release to that effect is given. The proceeds of the financing of $5,000,000 were allocated on a relative fair value basis as $3,182,963 to common shares and $1,817,037 as to warrants. An additional 835,800 units at a value of $208,950 were issued as a finder's fee pursuant to the private placement, with the allocation on a relative fair value basis as $133,016 to common shares and $75,934 as to warrants. Cash share issue costs pursuant to this private placement were an additional $72,259. The assumptions used in the Black-Scholes option pricing model for the relative fair value allocation were: a risk-free interest rate of 1.34%; an expected volatility of 87%; an expected life of 5 years; and an expected dividend of zero.

On December 19, 2012, the Company issued 30,000 common shares to ExpoGold valued at $7,200 pursuant to the Cajamarca Option agreement.

On June 14, 2013, the Company issued 100,000 common shares to ExpoGold valued at $19,000 pursuant to the Pavo Real Option agreement.

d) Stock Based Compensation:

The fair value of each option granted to employees, officers and directors was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

Fiscal 2013

During the year ended August 31, 2013, the Company recorded $329,143 in stock-based compensation expense for options vesting in the period as follows:

- a) vesting portion of options granted October 20, 2011, $31,490; and
- b) vesting portion of options granted September 24, 2012, $297,653.

The fair value of the 1,575,000 options granted on September 24, 2012, was determined using a risk-free interest rate of 1.29%, an expected volatility ranging from 80.1% to 88.2%, an expected life of ranging from 3.81 to 4.97 years, and an expected dividend of zero for a total fair value of $308,321 or $0.196 per option. Volatility was determined using daily closing share prices over a term equivalent to the expected life of the options.

Fiscal 2012

During the year ended August 31, 2012, the Company recorded $459,188 in stock-based compensation expense for options vesting in the year as follows:

- a) vesting portion of options granted October 20, 2011, $424,658
- b) vesting portion of options granted April 19, 2011, $11,019
- c) vesting portion of options granted December 1, 2010, $2,688
- d) vesting portion of options granted September 26, 2010, $20,823

The fair value of the 1,865,000 options granted on October 20, 2011, was determined using a risk-free interest rate of 1.41%, an expected volatility ranging from 81.4% to 88.6%, an expected life of ranging from 3.32 to 4.87 years, and an expected dividend of zero for a total fair value of $456,148 or $0.245 per option.

Fiscal 2011

During the year ended August 31, 2011, the Company recorded $591,854 in stock-based compensation expense for options vesting in the year as follows:

- a) vesting portion of options granted April 19, 2011, $22,314

14. SEGMENTED DISCLOSURE

The Company operates only in the mineral exploration sector within two geographic segments: Nevada projects in the United States; and Colombian projects in Colombia.

Notes 9 and 10 provide disclosure as to the geographic location of equipment; the exploration and evaluation assets; and geographical exploration expenditures.

15. MANAGEMENT OF CAPITAL

The Company manages its common shares, stock options and warrants as capital (see Note 12). The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to pursue the development of its mineral properties and to maintain a flexible capital structure which optimizes the costs of capital at an acceptable level of risk. The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.

The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares, issue debt, acquire or dispose of assets, or adjust the amount of cash.

In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the Company prepares expenditure budgets that are updated as necessary depending on various factors including successful capital deployment and general industry conditions.

In order to maximize ongoing exploration expenditures, the Company does not pay out dividends. The Company's investment policy is to keep its cash treasury on deposit in interest bearing Canadian chartered bank account and short-term guaranteed investment certificates.

The Company expects its current capital resources will be sufficient to carry out its exploration plans and operations through the next twelve months and longer.

18. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to August 31, 2013, the Company:

- reported that 100,000 warrants expired on October 29, 2013, unexercised;
- granted stock options to directors, officers, employees and consultants on 1,142,500 shares of the Company's capital stock, exercisable for up to five years at a price of $0.155 per share. The options granted will vest 50% immediately, and 50% in twelve months from the date of grant; and
- entered into an agreement with Alaska Hardrock Inc. ("AHI") for the acquisition of the Willow Creek Project, in Anchorage, Alaska. Miranda has signed a 80-year lease with AHI for 100% control of the Willow Creek property. Under the terms of the lease, Miranda has made a US$50,000 payment with a final US$100,000 due after a ninety-day due diligence period. Thereafter, the lease is subject to annual payments of US$150,000 or, if production is achieved, various net smelter royalties or revenues.
